The Board of Directors exercises the employer's rights over the CEO. The Board of Directors establishes its own Rules of Procedure. The Board of Directors exercises its tasks and rights as a body. The members of the Board of Directors are considered to be executive officers of the Company. The Board of Directors, as the management body of the Company, represents the Company against third parties before courts and other authorities.

1.1.2 Operation of the Board of Directors

1.1.2.1 Convening and preparing the meetings of the Board of Directors

A meeting of the Board of Directors may be convened by the President of the Board of Directors or any member of the Board of Directors at least four (4) working days, in exceptional cases three (3) working days prior to the meeting, in writing, stating the reason and purpose. A meeting of the Board of Directors may also be convened within the framework of the previous meeting, provided that all members are present.

The invitation shall hereby state the time and date, and place of the meeting, and shall be accompanied by the agenda and submissions. The members of the Board of Directors may also request the inclusion of additional agenda items, and a written proposal to this effect may be made no later than on the second (2nd) day prior to the date of the meeting of the Board of Directors. The meeting of the Board of Directors is attended by the members of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, upon invitation, the auditor, as well as the additional persons invited (company manager, CEO), experts, in person; there is no possibility of representation by proxy.

The venue of the meeting of the Board of Directors, unless otherwise decided unanimously, is the registered office of the Company.

Extraordinary meetings of the Board of Directors may also be held by telephone conference; the President of the Board of Directors will send the decisions passed at such meetings to the members for approval by e-mail, to which the members will respond by e-mail within one (1) working day.

In exceptional cases, it is also possible to hold a meeting within the framework of voting by electronic means (by e-mail) if urgent decision is required in a given case. The members of the Board of Directors have three (3) working days to announce their votes. The members of the Board of Directors shall send their votes to the President of the Board of Directors by electronic message (e-mail). If the vote of a member of the Board of Directors is not sent to the President of the Board of Directors within the available time, his or her silence shall be considered as abstention when the votes are aggregated. If more than half of the votes of the members of the Board of Directors are not sent by e-mail to the President of the Board of Directors, the provisions on the quorum of the Board of Directors shall apply. If a member deems it necessary to discuss a particular issue in detail, he may propose that a meeting of the Board of Directors be convened.

1.1.2.2 Order of the meetings of the Board of Directors

The meeting of the Board of Directors is chaired by the President of the Board of Directors or, in case of his or her impediment, by a member of the Board of Directors elected by the members of the Board of Directors as the presiding chair.

1.1.2.3 Decision-making

Decisions of the Board of Directors are made by a simple majority of the members of the Board of Directors present. The Board of Directors usually makes a decision on the basis of a written submission. The submission must contain all the essential information necessary to assess the issue the submission on the agenda item of the Board of Directors is made in electronic form (Word, text, scanned document), which must be sent to the members of the Board of Directors as an electronic message (e-mail)].

An item not included in the agenda announced in advance or subsequently supplemented may be put on the agenda at the meeting of the Board of Directors if at least two thirds of the members of the Board of Directors are present and the majority of the members of the Board of Directors present do not object to the discussion of the new agenda item.

A meeting of the Board of Directors has a quorum if more than half of the members of the Board of Directors are present. A meeting of the Board of Directors has a quorum regardless of the method of convening if all members of the Board of Directors have appeared.

1.1.2.4 Minutes

1.1.4 Liability of the Board of Directors and the members of the Board of Directors

The members of the Board of Directors are obliged to manage the Company on the basis of the priority of the interests of the Company.

In the course of their management activities, the members of the Board of Directors are liable to the Company for the damage caused to the Company in accordance with the rules on liability for damage caused by breach of contract contained in the Act on Civil Code, thus by the culpable violation of the law, the Articles of Association, the resolutions of the General Meeting and management obligations. However, the Company shall be liable for any damage caused to a third party by a member of the Board of Directors acting in this capacity.

The members of the Board of Directors are obliged to keep their information acquired about the affairs of the Company as business secrets.

After the termination of the Company without a legal successor, claims for compensation against the members of the Board of Directors may be enforced within one (1) year from the date of final Companies Court cancellation by the shareholders who were in a shareholder relationship at the time of the cancellation of the Company by the Companies Court. The shareholder may assert the claim for damages in proportion to the part of the assets distributed upon the dissolution of the Company that he is entitled to.

Article 11.20 of the Articles of Association allows individuals who hold the position of executive officers in another business organization performing the same main activity as the Company to be members of the Board of Directors.

Article 11.21 of the Articles of Association allows the members of the Board of Directors to enter into transactions within the scope of the company's activities in their own name or for the benefit of a member of the Board of Directors and a close relative.

1.1.5 Duties and powers of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors

Duties of the Chairperson of the Board of Directors:

- to convene and chair the meeting of the Board of Directors,
- to appoint the recorder of the minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors,
- to order the vote and state its outcome,
- to prepare the agenda of the General Meeting and the meeting of the Board of Directors, and present proposals for decisions,
- to act between two meetings of the Board of Directors on behalf of the Board of Directors,
- to exercise the basic employer's rights (establishment, termination of employment, determination of benefits) over the members of the Board of Directors.

1.1.6 Meetings of the Board of Directors held during the period under review

During the period under review, the 2019 business year, the Board of Directors met two (2) times in person and passed a resolution by electronic voting without holding a meeting another eighteen (18) times. All meetings of the Board of Directors had a quorum, in personal meetings, all members appeared, while in electronic votes, all members cast their votes, except in cases where a member did not vote due to personal involvement.

1.2 The CEO

In 2019, the position of the CEO of the Company was held by Zibriczki Béla, whose position as the CEO was terminated by the signing of a mutually agreed termination agreement on 14 March 2019. From 18 March 2019, the Board of Directors elected Jászai Gellért, President of the Board of Directors, as the CEO of the Company, whose appointment is for an indefinite period of time. In the period under review, Jászai Gellért has been the CEO since his appointment.

Powers and duties of the CEO:

- the operative management of the Company is performed by the CEO,
- the CEO manages matters within the framework defined by legislation, the Articles of Association, the Organizational and Operational Regulations, the Rules of Procedure of the Board of Directors, the resolutions of the General Meeting and the Board of Directors, with individual responsibility,
- the CEO shall have the right to decide on all matters which do not fall within the competence of the General Meeting or the Board of Directors,
- the CEO fully exercises employer's rights over the employees employed by the Company, except for the employer's rights over the members of the Board of Directors that are exercised by the President of the Board of Directors,
- in addition to the above, the CEO implements the resolutions and decisions made, and directs the performance of tasks falling within the scope of the Company's activities,
- the CEO coordinates the administrative and coordinating activities related to the preparation of decision-making materials related to the tasks of the Board of Directors, as well as the administrative tasks related to the activities of the Board of Directors.

1.3 Evaluation of the work of the Board of Directors, remuneration

The Board of Directors continuously evaluates the work of the leadership (Board of Directors, management) and also conducts a comprehensive evaluation once a year. There is an established system of remuneration of executive officers. In addition to the basic salary, the executive officer is entitled to a bonus if the Company's current and long-term development meets the objectives. The bonus is linked to the development of sales revenue, the development of operating results and the fulfilment of the most important individual tasks of the business year under review. The Board of Directors considers that the long-term successful operation of the Company is also reflected in the favourable development of the share price, so the benefit system applied also makes the executive officers interested in improving the share price in the long run.

1.4 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee

1.4.1 Setting up the Nomination and Remuneration Committee

With its decision number 4/2019. (IV.02.), in the structure according to the new management, the Board of Directors decided to set up a Nomination and Remuneration Committee. Pursuant to the resolution of the General Meeting, the Rules of Procedure of the Committee are established by the Committee itself and approved by the Board of Directors of the Company.

The purpose of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is to support the activities and decision-making of the Company, especially the General Meeting, within the circle of the decisions to be made in the field of corporate governance, in particular the selection, appointment and recall of executive officers and members of the Supervisory Board, and other leaders (e.g. CEO), elaboration of the principles guiding with respect to the waiver and remuneration that can be granted to them, as well as the conditions of suitability (conflict of interest, independence), in accordance with the provisions of the Corporate Governance Recommendations issued by BSE Ltd.

1.4.2 The organisation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee during the 2019 business year

During the period under review, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee consisted of three (3) members, as follows.

The composition of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee between 1 January 2019 and 2 April 2019

In view of the main corporate-law acts taking place at the Company (merger of subsidiaries included in the scope of consolidation into the Company through a merger), the work of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee was suspended between 1 January 2019 and 2 April 2019, no new members were elected.

The composition of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee between 2 April 2019 and 31 December 2019

Jászai Gellért (chairman; term of appointment: until 2 April 2024)
Linczésyi Aladin Ádám (term of appointment: until 2 April 2024)
Tóth Béla Zsolt (term of appointment: until 2 April 2024)

1.4.3 Meetings of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee in the period under review

During the period under review, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee met once (1) and once (1) writing vote with the full participation of its members.

2. Control of the Company

2.1 The Supervisory Board

2.1.1 The organisation of the Supervisory Board during the 2019 business year

The composition of the Supervisory Board between 1 January 2019 and 5 September 2019

During the period under review, the Supervisory Board was constituted by three (3) members, namely:

Simon Zoltán (Chairman; term of appointment: indefinite)
Ódorné Angyal Zsuzsanna (term of appointment: indefinite)
Tima János (term of appointment: indefinite)

The composition of the Supervisory Board between 6 September 2019 and 31 December 2019

Simon Zoltán, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, resigned from his position in the Supervisory Board with effect from 5 September 2019 (with his statement included in a separate document). At the Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on 5 September 2019, it was decided to elect Tomcsányi Gábor and Kunosi András as members of the Supervisory Board. At its Extraordinary General Meeting held on 5 September 2019, the Company elected the new members of the Supervisory Board, which thus consisted of the following four (4) members:

Tomcsányi Gábor (chairman; term of appointment: indefinite)
Ódoré Angyal Zsuzsanna (term of appointment: indefinite)
Tima János (term of appointment: indefinite)
Kunosi András (term of appointment: indefinite)

The Supervisory Board acts as a body, electing a chairman from among its members. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board convenes and chairs the meetings of the Supervisory Board, appoints the recorder of the minutes, orders the voting and determines the result. A meeting of the Supervisory Board may be convened by any of its members, stating the reason and purpose, if the Chairman fails to comply with the request within eight (8) days.

2.1.2 Tasks of the Supervisory Board

The Supervisory Board controls the Board of Directors of the Company, which manages the Company, for the supreme body of the Company. The Supervisory Board acts as a body, however, it may entrust any of its members with the performance of certain audit tasks, or it may distribute the audit tasks among its members on a permanent basis. The division of the audit does not affect the right of the member of the Supervisory Board to extend the audit to other activities within the scope of audit duties of the Supervisory Board.

The tasks and obligations of the Supervisory Board are:

- to monitor the implementation of legislation, as well as resolutions and decisions adopted by the General Meeting;
- to control the business management of the Company, the efficiency of the business management and the correctness of the administration of the Company;
- to examine all relevant business policy reports on the agenda of the meeting of the supreme body of the Company and all submissions that relate to matters within the exclusive competence of the General Meeting;
- to convene the General Meeting and propose the agenda of the General Meeting if, in its opinion, the activities of the Board of Directors are in conflict with the law, the Articles of Association, the resolution of the General Meeting or violate the interests of the Company or shareholders;
- to keep regular contact with the selected auditor;
- to make a proposal to the General Meeting on the person and remuneration of the auditor to be elected, on the basis of the prior consent of the Board of Directors;
- to develop recommendations and proposals initiated on the basis of the findings of the internal audit and its own experience;
- to perform all other tasks that are referred to the competence of the Supervisory Board by law or the Articles of Association.

The Annual General Meeting may decide on the annual report on the management of the Company and the use of the profit after tax only in the possession of the written report of the Supervisory Board. The General Meeting may decide on the payment of dividends at the same time as approving the report, on the basis of the proposal of the Board of Directors approved in advance by the Supervisory Board. The approval of the Supervisory Board is also required for the submission of the Corporate Governance Report at the same time as the approval of the report.

The prior consent of the Supervisory Board is required for the conclusion of a contract that the Company enters into with a registered shareholder who holds 10% of the share capital and has a voting right, or his close relative.

The Supervisory Board shall prepare written reports on the issues within its competence to the General Meeting within the deadline in accordance with the relevant legal regulations, but at least fifteen (15) days before the date of the General Meeting.

In the course of performing its duties, the Supervisory Board may request information from executive officers and senior employees, and examine the books and records of the Company, if necessary, with the involvement of experts. The members of the Supervisory Board are entitled to participate in the General Meeting with the right of consultation.

2.1.3 Legal status and responsibilities of the members of the Supervisory Board

The members of the Supervisory Board are obliged to act in person, there is no place for representation. The member of the Supervisory Board is independent of the management of the Company and cannot be instructed in the course of his or her activities.

The rules under Subsection 4 to 6 of Sections 3:22 of the Act on Civil Code and Subsection 2 of Section 3:26 of the Hungarian Civil Code, on grounds for exclusion and conflicts of interest, shall apply to the members of the Supervisory Board accordingly. Conflicts of interest are otherwise covered by Articles 14.18-14.21 of the Articles of Association.

In view of the fact that the Company is a listed joint stock company, its operation is governed by the provisions of the Act of CXX of 2001 on Capital Market (hereinafter referred to as Capital Market Act); the members of the Supervisory Board shall carry out their activities in compliance with the provisions of the Capital Market Act, in particular Section 201/B of the Capital Market Act, to fulfil any potential reporting obligation of the members of the Supervisory Board as insiders to the Hungarian National Bank.

In accordance with the applicable rules of the Act on Civil Code on liability for breach of contract, the members of the Supervisory Board are jointly and severally liable to the Company for damage caused to the Company through their failure to perform or improper performance of their audit obligations, also including breaches of the audit obligation related to the preparation and disclosure of the annual report and related business report. The potential division of audit tasks does not affect the responsibilities of the members of the Supervisory Board detailed in this section.

The members of the Supervisory Board are obliged to keep the business secrets of the Company.

2.1.4 Supervisory Board meetings held during the period under review

During the period under review, the Supervisory Board met once (1) with the full participation of its members.

During 2019, the Supervisory Board decided on the following issues: annual report, annual business report, consolidated report, proposal on dividend payment, approval of other proposals of the General Meeting, amendment of the Articles of Association.

2.2 The Audit Committee

2.2.1 The organisation of the Audit Committee during the 2019 business year

The composition of the Audit Committee between 1 January 2019 and 5 September 2019

During the period under review, the Audit Committee was constituted by three (3) members, namely:

Simon Zoltán (chairman; term of appointment: indefinite)
Ódoré Anny Zsuzsanna (term of appointment: indefinite)
Tima János (term of appointment: indefinite)

The composition of the Audit Committee between 6 September 2019 and 31 December 2019

Simon Zoltán, the Chairman of the Audit Committee, resigned from his position in the Audit Committee with effect from 5 September 2019 (with his statement in a separate document). At the extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on 5 September 2019, it was decided to elect Tomcsányi Gábor and Kunosi András as members of the Audit Committee. At its extraordinary General Meeting held on 5 September 2019, the Company elected the new members of the Audit Committee, which thus consisted of the following four (4) members:

Tomcsányi Gábor (Chairman; term of appointment: indefinite)
Ódoré Anny Zsuzsanna (term of appointment: indefinite)
Tima János (term of appointment: indefinite)
Kunosi András (term of appointment: indefinite)

2.2.2 Duties and powers of the Audit Committee

Duties and powers of the Audit Committee

- commenting on the report under the Act on Accounting,
- proposing the identity and remuneration of the auditor,
- preparing the contract to be concluded with the auditor,
- monitoring the enforcement of professional requirements and conflict of interest rules for the auditor, performing tasks related to the cooperation with the auditor and, if necessary, proposing measures to be taken by the Supervisory Board,
- evaluating the operation of the financial reporting system and proposing the necessary measures to be taken,
- assisting the work of the Supervisory Board in order to properly control the financial reporting system.

2.2.3 Meetings of the Audit Committee held during the period under review

During the period under review, the Audit Committee met once (1) with the full participation of its members.

2.3 The auditor

2.3.1 Elected Auditor of the Company

The permanent auditor of the Company is elected by the General Meeting on the basis of the proposal of the Audit Committee.

With its Decision No. 14/2018. (04.26.), the General Meeting elected INTERAUDITOR Neuner, Henzl, Honti Tanácsadó Korlátolt Felelősségű Társaság (registered office: 1074 Budapest, Vörösmarty utca 16-18. A. ép. Fsz. 1/F.; company registration number: 01-09-063211; Chamber Registration Number: 000171) as the permanent auditor of the Company. The auditor's assignment shall last until the adoption of the balance sheet for the business year 2020, but not later than 30 April 2021.

Freiszberger Zsuzsanna (place and date of birth: Barcs, 27 July 1977; mother's name: Böczkös Rózsa Mária; residential address: 2440 Százhalombatta, Rózsa utca 7., membership number: 007229) is personally responsible for the audit on behalf of the auditor.

The General Meeting held on 25 April 2019 - accepting the proposal of the Audit Committee – established the remuneration of the elected permanent auditor for the individual annual report for the financial year 2019, prepared in accordance with the Act on Accounting, in the amount of 4,350,000,-HUF + VAT, while for the consolidated accounts compiled in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) in the amount of 2,000,000,-HUF + VAT.

2.3.2 Requirements for the auditor

In addition to the Supervisory Board, the management is audited by the permanent auditor. The permanent auditor may review the books of the Company, request information from the directors and employees of the Company, and inspect the cash-desk, the stock of securities and merchandise of the Company, as well as its contracts and bank accounts.

The permanent auditor shall be invited to the General Meeting of the Company. He may also be present at the meetings of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board, and he may initiate participation in these meetings with the right of consultation.

The Company has the authenticity and legality of its financial statements under the Act on Accounting verified by an auditor. The permanent statutory auditor is obliged to attend the General Meeting discussing the annual report, but his or her absence does not prevent that the General Meeting be held. In addition, the auditor is required to examine all material business reports to be submitted to the General Meeting in terms of whether they contain real data or comply with legal requirements.

If the permanent statutory auditor detects a change in the Company's assets that jeopardizes the satisfaction of claims against the legal entity, or if he detects a circumstance that gives rise to the statutory liability of the executive officer or members of the Supervisory Board, he is obliged to initiate that the Board of Directors take the measures necessary for the General Meeting to pass a resolution. If the initiative is without any result, the auditor is obliged to notify the Court of Registration which supervises legality.

The permanent auditor of the Company is elected by the General Meeting for a maximum period of five (5) years. The General Meeting is also responsible for determining remuneration.

The term of office of the permanent statutory auditor shall not be less than the period between the general meeting electing him and the general meeting approving the next report. The recall of the corporate auditor may not be based on the refusal of the findings made in the independent auditor's report or the issuance of an audit clause related to the Company's financial statements in accordance with the Act on Accounting.

A person who is on the register of auditors in accordance with the relevant legislation may be elected as a permanent statutory auditor.

If the permanent statutory auditor is a business association, in addition to the person performing the audit activity, the personal conflict of interest rules shall apply to all members, shareholders, senior executives and senior employees of the business association.

The person responsible for the audit may not perform work for the Company on the basis of another engagement and the permanent auditor business association may perform other tasks only if the subject of the engagement does not affect the duties of the auditor specified in the personal service contract on the auditor's duties, concluded with the management of the Company.

Following his election, the Board of Directors enters into a contract with the permanent statutory auditor in accordance with the general rules of civil law.

If the permanent statutory auditor is a business association, it must identify the member, executive officer or employee who is personally responsible for the audit. This person may be appointed only with the approval of the General Meeting.

Persons elected to the position of permanent statutory auditor may be re-elected and recalled.

The position of the permanent statutory auditor shall be terminated

- a) at the end of the period specified in the contract,
- b) by recall based on a decision of the General Meeting,
- c) upon the occurrence of any ground for exclusion specified by law,
- d) termination of the contract by the auditor,
- e) upon death.

The permanent statutory auditor is obliged to keep the information obtained about the affairs of the Company as business secrets.

The liability of the permanent statutory auditor is governed by the liability rules specified in the legislation applicable to auditors and in the Act on Civil Code.

3. Internal controls, risk management procedures

3.1 The Company's Disclosure Principles

With regard to disclosure, the Company acts in accordance with the stock exchange rules and the laws in force, that is, during the period under review, it publishes its results in the form of a 1st quarterly report, half-yearly report, 3rd quarterly report and 4th quarterly report, and an annual report at the end of its business year. In addition, it discloses extraordinary information if it becomes aware of information with regard to changes that have taken or are about to take place in its business management that may affect the value or yield of the securities it issues, directly or indirectly, or are relevant to market participants in making their investment decisions. Through its office, the Company is in constant contact with investors and provides availability to answer investors' questions.

3.2 The Company's insider trading policies

The circle of insiders is regulated by law. The Company enforces the provisions of the law with this effect by drawing the attention of the parties concerned to their observance with a separate internal instruction, and by referring the management of related matters to the competence of the Company's office. The Company's office discloses the data of insiders and securities issued to the Hungarian Financial Supervisory Authority once a year at the same time as sending the annual report in accordance with the legal provisions.

The Board of Directors of the Company or its agent in accordance with the rules of the Capital Markets Act shall keep a share register of the shares, which shall contain at least the following:

- the name / business name of the shareholder, shareholder's proxy,
- the residential address / registered office of the shareholder, shareholder's proxy,
- the number of the shareholder's shares and temporary shares per share type or series of shares (the extent of his ownership share).

Anyone can view the share register.

The change of ownership is recorded by the securities account provider, at the same time notifying the Board of Directors of the Company or its agent, who, unless otherwise provided, registers the shareholder in the share register.

A shareholder whose name does not appear in the share register may not exercise his shareholder rights.

4.2 Brief description of the rules related to the conduct of the General Meeting

The supreme body of the Company is the General Meeting, which consists of all shareholders.

The General Meeting shall be held at least once (1) a year, no later than April 30 following the closing of the financial year, provided that the repeated General Meeting in the event of a quorum shall be convened at least ten (10) days after the original date.

The General Meeting is convened by the Board of Directors, except for those cases specified in the Act on Civil Code when the Supervisory Board or the Court of Registration of the Court of Justice or the shareholders are entitled to convene the General Meeting due to reasons specified by law.

The invitation to the General Meeting shall be published by the Board of Directors publicly (on its own website and on the website of the BSE) at least thirty (30) days prior to the planned General Meeting in the manner specified for the announcements of the Company.

All invitations and announcements of the General Meeting shall indicate the corporate name and registered office of the Company, the place, date and time of the General Meeting, the agenda and the conditions for exercising the right to vote, and the place and date of the General Meeting repeated due to the lack of a quorum. Pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Articles of Association - in accordance with the Act on Civil Code - the invitation to the General Meeting shall specify the manner of holding the General Meeting, the conditions for exercising the right to supplement the agenda item, and the place of access to the draft resolutions and the text of documents to be submitted to the General Meeting.

A matter not included in the published agenda may be resolved by the General Meeting only if all the shareholders are present and unanimously agree. The General Meeting has a quorum if shareholders representing more than half of the voting shares are present in person or through an authorized representative. The power of attorney for such representation shall be recorded in an authentic instrument or in a private instrument with full probative force. The power of attorney is valid for one General Meeting or for a specified period of time, but for a maximum of twelve (12) months. The validity of the power of attorney also extends to the resumption of the suspended General Meeting and the General Meeting reconvened due to the lack of a quorum.

If the General Meeting does not have a quorum, in the case of a repeated General Meeting convened with the same agenda item, at least ten (10) days must elapse between that and the date of the repeated General Meeting, furthermore, the period between the General Meeting without a quorum and the repeated General Meeting may not exceed twenty-one (21) days. The General Meeting which has been repeated due to the lack of a quorum has a quorum in the matters on the original agenda regardless of the number of those present.

Membership rights at the General Meeting may be exercised by the person who owns the share on the record date of ownership matching. The record date of ownership matching is in line with the relevant regulations of KELER Zrt.

Voting shall be by open ballot showing the number of votes.

The Company applies the "one share one vote" principle.

The presiding Chairman of the General Meeting is elected by the General Meeting by a simple majority of those present, on the basis of the joint proposal of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Board. The same procedure shall apply to the election of the teller, the recorder of the minutes and the verifier of the minutes proposed by the presiding Chairman of the General Meeting, provided that the verifier of the minutes of the General Meeting may only be a shareholder present or his representative.

The presiding Chairman of the General Meeting shall chair the deliberations on the basis of the agenda item, order the voting and present its results, and announce the resolutions of the General Meeting. Minutes shall be kept of the General Meeting.

In this Corporate Governance Report, 4iG Plc. provides a comprehensive description of the company's (management) processes and practices. The detailed rules of the functions presented can be found in the Articles of Association in force at any time, which are available on the Company's website (www.4ig.hu) and on the BSE website (www.bet.hu).
