Directors performed their work during the evaluated period with the priority of the interests of the Company in mind.

- 10.3. The resolutions of the general meeting on matters listed in Points a), b), c), h), i), j), k), l) m), n), q), r), s), v), w), x) y), and z) of Section 10.1 shall be adopted by three-fourth majority of the votes; any other resolution may be adopted by the simple majority of the casted votes, with the proviso that to the amendment of the Articles of Association the prevailing rules of the Hungarian Act on the Civil Code on voting shall apply.
- 10.4. If the validity of a resolution of the General Meeting requires the separate consent of the shareholders of each series of shares by law, the attending shareholders of the relevant series of shares shall decide on the consent in a separate decision by a simple majority of votes embodied by their shares belonging to the given series of shares, before the General Meeting passed its resolution.
- 10.5. The general meeting may adopt any decision that would result in the delisting of the shares (including decisions that would entail the cancellation of a series of shares as a punitive sanction) if there is/are investor(s) who undertake(s) preliminary commitment to submit takeover bid in relation to the delisting, in compliance with the rules of operation of the stock exchange.
- 10.6. Holding the General Meeting
 - 10.6.1. The general meeting shall be held at least once a year, latest by 30 April of the year following the closing of the previous financial year, including cases of repeated or suspended general meetings.
 - 10.6.2. In addition to that, the general meeting may be convened at any time, whenever the Company's operation requires the general meeting's decision, in accordance with the provisions of this Point 10.6.
 - 10.6.3. The Board of Directors shall convene the general meeting, except for the cases determined in the Act on the Civil Code, when this right is vested to the Supervisory Board, the Company Registry Court or the shareholders.
 - 10.6.4. The general meeting shall be convened by the publication of the respective notice on the Company's own website (www.4ig.hu), on the website of the Budapest Stock Exchange (www.bse.hu) and on the official online information system operated by the National Bank of Hungary (<https://kozvetetelek.mnb.hu/en/kezdooldal>) and at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the general meeting. The invitation to the general meeting shall include:

- a) the name of the Company and the seat of business,
- b) the date and place of the general meeting,
- c) the method of holding of the general meeting,
- d) the agenda of the general meeting,
- e) the criteria to the exercise of voting rights, as declared in the Articles of Association,
- f) the criteria to the exercise of the right to add additional items to the agenda,
- g) the location where the draft resolutions and the documents to be submitted to the general meeting are available,
- h) the date and place of the repeated general meeting, should the original general meeting miss a quorum.

If the general meeting does not have a quorum, a repeated general meeting shall be convened with the same agenda items on the same starting date as the general meeting without a quorum with the fact that the repeated general meeting shall be convened no later than twenty-one (21) days after the date of the general meeting without a quorum.

- 10.6.5. Except for the case defined in this section, the general meeting shall be convened to the registered seat of the Company. The Board of Directors may convene the general meeting to a venue other than the registered seat of the Company. This place shall be in the same settlement as the registered seat (within the administrative boundaries of the same settlement), suitable for holding the general meeting, having an adequate size (adjusted to the number of the shareholders) and equipped with proper technical devices required to the arrangement of the meeting.

10.7. Holding the General Meeting

- 10.7.1. The shareholders – vested with consultation rights –, the members of the Board of Directors, the members of the Supervisory Board and the auditor shall attend at the general meeting. The persons of the officers of the general meeting, namely the chairperson, the keeper of the minutes, the vote counting teller and the authenticator of the minutes, shall be elected upon the proposal of the Board of Directors.
- 10.7.2. The general meeting shall elect a person to authenticate the minutes from among the shareholders present at the meeting.
- 10.7.3. The officers of the Company may attend at the meeting in person only.

I, the undersigned, countersigned this document on its last page. The place and time of the countersignature is also indicated on the last page of this document herein.

- 10.7.4. The shareholders may attend at the meeting by proxy. One proxy may represent more shareholders, and one shareholder may have more proxies at the same time. The executive officers of the Company, the members of the Supervisory Board and the auditor shall not act as the proxy of the shareholder. If a shareholder is represented by more than one proxy and they vote differently or make contradictory declarations, each casted vote and declaration made by them shall be null and void. If the validity of the proxy is for a period covering several General Meetings, the Company is entitled to verify the validity of the proxy before each General Meeting and to request its presentation before the General Meeting. The validity of a power of attorney shall also cover the reopened general meeting (after the suspension thereof) and the repeated general meeting (if the original meeting did not have a quorum). A power of attorney shall be issued and submitted to the Company in the form of a public document or a private document of full probative force. The authorized representative of the shareholder who acts upon a separate agreement and the legal representatives defined in the prevailing act on capital markets shall proceed and exercise the shareholder's rights in their own names, for the benefit of the shareholder.
- 10.7.5. The shareholders present shall be recorded in attendance sheet, including the name (company name), the address (seat of business) of the shareholder/proxy, the number of its shares, the number of votes vested to it as well as any change that might occur in the number of the persons of the attendees during the general meeting. The attendance sheet shall be authenticated by the signatures of the chairperson of the general meeting and the keeper of the minutes.
- 10.7.6. If the convention of the general meeting was noncompliant, no resolutions may be adopted unless all shareholders vested with voting rights are present and consent to the holding of the general meeting unanimously.
- 10.7.7. The questions not added to the agenda of the general meeting may be discussed only if all shareholders are present and consent to the discussion of the topic unanimously.
- 10.7.8. The general meeting shall have a quorum if the shareholders representing more than half of the votes attached to the shares vested with voting rights are present. When establishing the quorum and exercising the subscription (acquisition) priority right, the own shares – shares held by the Company – shall be disregarded. If the general meeting does not have a quorum, in respect of the items on the original general meeting's agenda, the repeated general meeting shall have a quorum regardless of the number of shareholders present.

10.7.9. The general meeting may be suspended once. The suspended meeting shall be continued (reopened) in maximum thirty (30) days of the suspension. In this case, the rules concerning the convention of the general meeting and the election of the general meeting's officers shall not apply.

10.7.10. The shareholder(s) may not vote on and shall be disregarded in the course of settlement of the quorum in respect of the respective resolution, who meets the following:

- a) who would be relieved of obligation or liability or privileged against the Company,
- b) with whom a contract would be concluded under the resolution of the general meeting,
- c) against whom a lawsuit would be initiated,
- d) a relative of whom, who is not a shareholder of the Company, is interested in the resolution of the general meeting,
- e) who has a dominant controlling relationship with the entity interested in the resolution of the general meeting, or
- f) who is otherwise personally interested in the resolution of the general meeting.

10.7.11. The shareholders who voted for a resolution of which they were, or, if exercising the expectable care and diligence, could have been aware that it obviously harms the material interests of the Company, shall have unlimited, joint and several liability for the damages arising therefrom.

10.7.12. Voting at the General Meeting is primarily performed using a computer, with a voting device. The shareholder or the shareholder's proxy, provided that he or she is attending lawfully in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association, may collect the voting device after certifying his or her identity and signing the attendance register at the venue of the General Meeting. If due to any reasons – especially, but not exclusively technical reasons – voting is not possible with the voting device, the voting shall take place using a ballot. Any given shareholder (including a shareholder represented by a shareholder's proxy) is only entitled to use a single voting device (book of voting slips).

10.8. Minutes of the general meeting

10.8.1. Minutes shall be recorded of the general meeting, including the name and registered seat of the Company, the date and place of the general meeting, the method of holding of the general meeting, the names of the chairperson, the keeper of the minutes, the person authenticating the minutes and the vote counting teller, the main events of the general meeting, the proposals, the draft resolutions, in respect of each

- 10.8.2. The minutes of meeting shall be signed by the keeper of the minutes and the chairperson of the general meeting and authenticated by an attending shareholder appointed for this task.
- 10.8.3. Any shareholder may request from the Board of Directors an extract or copy of the minutes of the meeting. The Board of Directors shall place and keep the minutes of the general meeting and the attendance sheet among its documentation; furthermore, the aforementioned documents shall be submitted to the Company Registry Court within thirty (30) days of the closing of the general meeting.

11. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- 11.1. The managing body of the Company is the Board of Directors.
- 11.2. The members of the Board of Directors are executive officers of the Company. When acting in this capacity, no executive officer may be instructed by either the shareholders or the employees of the Company.
- 11.3. Natural persons shall be elected to be the members of the Board of Directors. The duties of the executive officer shall be primarily performed in person. Any restriction or division of the power of representation vested upon members of the management board or rendering such member's actions conditional or subject to approval shall not be effective as against third parties.
- 11.4. During the performance of its tasks and duties, the Board of Directors shall act as a body. The distribution of powers and responsibilities between the Board's members shall be established in the Rules of Procedure of the Board of Directors, adopted and approved by itself.
- 11.5. The Board of Directors of the Company consists of three to eleven (3-11) persons who choose the Chairman of the Board of Directors from its own members.
- 11.6. The members of the Company's Board of Directors shall be appointed by the general meeting an unspecified term. The appointment of an executive officer shall take effect when accepted by the person appointed. The members of the Board of Directors shall be reappointed and withdrawn by the general meeting, at any time.
- 11.7. Unless excluded by the law, remuneration shall be settled and paid in consideration for the performance of the executive officer's services. The amount of the remuneration shall be decided by the general meeting. After the final and binding establishment of the insolvency of the Company, during the term of the liquidation proceeding, no remuneration may be paid to the members of the Board of Directors.

11.8. Termination of membership in the board of directors:

- a) upon expiry of the designated term of office;
- b) by dismissal;
- c) upon the occurrence of any grounds for exclusion in relation with the Member of the Board of Directors in line with the relevant regulations.
- d) upon resignation;
- e) upon death,
- f) if the mandate is rendered subject to some condition for termination, when the condition is met;
- g) if the Board of Directors Member's legal capacity is limited in the scope required for discharging his functions;

11.9 The member of the Board of Directors may resign at any time, by submitting a respective resignation notice to another member of the Board of Directors or the general meeting, addressed to the Company. However, if so required for the purposes of the operability of the Company, the resignation shall only take effect on the sixtieth (60th) day after the announcement thereof, unless the general meeting has already provided for the appointment of a new member to the Board of Directors beforehand.
