MUBADALA INVESTS IN 4iG GROUP

- 4iG Group and Mubadala Investment Company PJSC ('Mubadala'), a leading global sovereign investor, have signed an agreement under which Mubadala will make a USD 50 million investment in the Hungarian corporate group through a convertible loan that will mandatorily convert into equity at maturity.
- Through the transaction, Mubadala establishes an investment partnership with 4iG Group, one of Hungary's largest capital markets companies with a portfolio spanning sectors including technology, infocommunications, digital infrastructure, and space.
- The agreement follows the effective growth strategy implemented by 4iG Group in recent years, and is expected to strengthen the Company's international profile while potentially supporting new funding opportunities.
- The investment may also serve as a cornerstone for deepening the relationship between 4iG Group and Mubadala, as it provides an opportunity for the parties to agree on Mubadala increasing its stake in 4iG Group in the future, subject to compliance with applicable regulatory requirements.

As part of its long-term growth strategy, 4iG has entered into an agreement with leading sovereign investor Mubadala. Under the terms of the agreement, Mubadala, which is wholly owned by the Government of Abu Dhabi, will provide a USD 50 million convertible loan to 4iG. The conversion share price is based on the 90-day volume-weighted average trading price preceding the signing day of the instrument. The equity conversion will be carried out in compliance with applicable regulatory requirements at the end of Q1 2029. The parties aim to finalise the transaction by Q1 2026, subject to the required regulatory approvals under applicable laws and regulations.

The agreement between 4iG and Mubadala enables the parties to further enhance their partnership. Mubadala has been offered the opportunity to increase its investment in 4iG in the future in the company, subject to compliance with the applicable regulatory requirements.

The agreement follows the growth path and business strategy pursued by 4iG Group in recent years. The involvement of a world-renowned institutional investor is expected to enhance the Group's reputation in international financial and capital markets, establishing a reference that can attract future investments, while also supporting the company's capital markets flexibility and funding capabilities.

"The cooperation initiated with Mubadala is the first significant international response to the development direction and strategy pursued in recent years. We are entering into a partnership with a respected, global institutional investor known for its professional track record, financial strength and long-term investment approach. This agreement can open new avenues for 4iG Group in international financial and capital markets, while also providing a solid foundation to deepen our cooperation with companies from the United Arab Emirates as well as key players in other global investment markets." said Gellért Jászai, Chairman and CEO of 4iG.

Managing a global portfolio of approximately $330 billion, Mubadala is one of the world's leading sovereign investors, recognized for its disciplined, value-driven approach and long-term partnership model. The organization has built a significant international footprint across technology and innovation, digital infrastructure, energy, healthcare, and other strategic sectors.

The cooperation established with Mubadala is aligned with 4iG's strategic objective to develop its growth model in partnership with internationally recognised, long-term committed institutional investors. At the same time, the transaction supports 4iG Group's sustainable, value-driven growth across the technology, infocommunications, digital infrastructure, and space sectors.
