

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PROCUREMENT

- for certain member companies of 4iG Group -

Effective as of October 1, 2025.

1. PREAMBLE

The 4iG Group uses the services of an electronic procurement system, the SAP Ariba system (hereinafter referred to as the Ariba system or System), for the purpose of ensuring transparency and cost-effective management of its procurement processes. Individual members of the 4iG Group use the Ariba system to manage their procurements from the moment a procurement need arises to when an order is placed.

The 4iG Group provides access to and use of the Ariba system to its suppliers, and its goal is that, over time, all members of the 4iG Group conduct their procurements entirely electronically through the Ariba system. Until the Ariba system is implemented at a given member company of the 4iG Group, the provisions of the GTCP shall apply to the given Order, with the provision that the Order shall not be placed through the Ariba system, but by other means (hereinafter: Alternative Ordering Method), in particular, but not exclusively, by e-mail, on paper or by other electronic means of communication (e.g. order of PDF format). The provisions of the GTCP referring to the Ariba system shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Alternative Order Method in these rules of procedure.

These general terms and conditions govern the rights and obligations relating to the procurement procedure conducted through the Ariba system, as well as all provisions of contracts concluded by the Purchaser via the Ariba system with business entities, individual entrepreneurs and other persons and entities engaged in business activities.

- g) any other parameters specified by the Purchaser in any subsequent announcements not set out in the GTCP (e.g. regarding the refusal to conclude a contract, the Tenders received, the technical and pricing negotiations);
- h) a notice regarding the application and the availability of the GTCP.

The Purchaser reserves the right to amend or withdraw the Call for Tenders, to suspend or to terminate the procurement procedure at any stage, and to expand the circle of Participants. The Purchaser is not obliged to justify its decision in this regard. In the event of the Call for Tenders being modified or withdrawn, the procurement procedure being suspended or terminated at any stage, or the circle of Participants being expanded, the Purchaser shall notify the Participants through the System. The previous Call for Tenders shall cease to be valid with the notification, except in the case of expanding the circle of Participants.

4.1.2. The Purchaser expressly reserves the right to extend the deadline for the submission of Tenders. The Purchaser shall inform the Participants of the extended deadline in accordance with Section 4.1.1

4.1.3. The Purchaser excludes its liability towards the Participants for any eventual consequences arising from the modification or withdrawal of the Call for Tenders, the suspension or termination of the procurement procedure at any stage, or the expansion of the circle of Participants.

4.2. The submission of Tenders

4.2.1. The Participant may only submit Tenders through the System. The Purchaser is not obliged to take into account Tenders submitted by other means (e.g. by post, courier, fax, e-mail or orally), unless the Purchaser expressly requests the Participant to submit the Tender or related information by such other means.

4.2.2. In order to submit a Tender, the Participant shall fill in the mandatory fields in the System and upload the documentation related to the Tender. The Tender is deemed submitted when the „Send complete response” button is clicked. The Tender shall include at least the following:

- a) the Fee in such a way that it includes the total net consideration of the Service, i.e. all costs arising in connection with the performance of the Agreement (including all public charges, insurance and other fees), excluding VAT;
- b) technical and other descriptions related to the Service, which enable the Purchaser to assess whether the Tender meets its specific requirements for the Service;

- 4.2.4. Following the submission of the Tender, the Participant may modify or withdraw its Tender within the deadline specified in the Call for Tenders. After the expiry of the deadline specified in the Call for Tenders, the Tender may not be modified or withdrawn, and the commitment of the Participant to its Tender shall commence at the moment of the expiry of the deadline specified in the Call for Tenders.
- 4.2.5. Unless otherwise specified in the Call for Tenders, the offer of the Participant is binding for 90 (ninety) calendar days following the deadline for the submission of tenders.
- 4.2.6. The Participant is responsible for the accuracy, completeness and correctness of the data and information provided in the Tender. The Purchaser is entitled to declare Tenders containing inaccurate, incomplete and/or incorrect data or information invalid and to disregard them during the Tender evaluation process.
- 4.2.7. The Purchaser notes that the System does not require separate authentication during the submission of Tenders, therefore the Purchaser shall consider every Tender received as originating from the authorized representative of the Participant. The Participant is solely responsible for ensuring that the Tender is submitted through the System by the person authorized to represent it. The Participant or the Contracting Partner may not claim that the Tender was submitted by a person acting without a right of representation or by a person acting beyond the scope of his/her right of representation.
- 4.2.8. To avoid any misunderstanding, the Purchaser notes that no Agreement is concluded between the Purchaser and the Participant upon submission of the Tender.
- 4.2.9. The Participant shall bear all costs that may arise in connection with the submission, modification, supplementation, etc. of the Tender.

4.3. The evaluation of Tenders

- 4.3.1. The Purchaser first examines the suitability and validity of Tenders. The Purchaser reserves the right to accept or reject Tenders in whole or in part, to exclude from the evaluation Tenders that do not comply with the formal requirements, and to conduct further negotiations/consultations only with the Participants selected by the Purchaser on the basis of the evaluation of Tenders, if the Purchaser has reserved the right to do so in the Call for Tenders.
- 4.3.2. To avoid any misunderstandings, the Purchaser notes that the selection of individual Tenders for further negotiations does not constitute their acceptance by the Purchaser nor does it create any obligation on the part of the Purchaser to enter into a contract.
- 4.3.3. After the deadline for the submission of Tenders, the Participant may only supplement or clarify (remedy deficiencies) the Tenders at the request of the Purchaser.
- 4.3.4. The Purchaser is entitled to exclude Tenders from further evaluation in particular in the following cases:
 - a) the Tender contains conditions restricting the technical content specified in the Call for Tenders;

- b) the Participant fails to comply with the Purchaser's request to remedy deficiencies within the deadline specified in that request;
- c) the Tender was submitted late by the Participant;
- d) the Participant provided false information during the procurement procedure;
- e) the Participant is under voluntary winding up, or under bankruptcy proceedings by a published court order, or under liquidation proceeding ordered by a final court decision;
- f) the Participant suspended its activities, or its activities were suspended;
- g) the Participant committed a criminal offence in connection with its economic or professional activities, established by a final court decision;
- h) the Participant does not accept the application of the GTCP or any of its provisions or excludes them in its Tender.

4.4. Conclusion and interpretation of the Agreement

- 4.4.1. Until the Order is placed, the Purchaser may decide at any time not to enter into Agreement with the Participant, and, where applicable, publish a new Call for Tenders.
- 4.4.2. The Purchaser notifies the Participants of the acceptance or rejection of their Tenders via the System within 15 (fifteen) business days of the deadline specified in the Call for Tenders. The Agreement is concluded upon the Purchaser placing the Order; unless otherwise provided by law, no confirmation by the Contracting Partner or separate written agreement is required, except for the Alternative Ordering Method, in which case the Agreement is concluded on the basis of a separate written agreement between the Parties, whereby the Order signed by the Purchaser is returned to the Contracting Partner. The Parties agree that documents forming part of the Agreement shall primarily be recorded in the System.
- 4.4.3. The Purchaser may decide to enter into Agreement with multiple Participants, even if this means accepting only certain parts of multiple Tenders (in the case of divisible Services).
- 4.4.4. The terms and conditions set out in the Call for Tenders and the accepted Tender, the Order, the provisions of the GTCP, Annex 1 to the GTCP, and, if applicable, Annex 2 to the GTCP and the legal declaration of the contracting partner made in accordance with Section Hiba! A hivatkozási forrás nem található. shall form part of the Agreement. In the event of any discrepancies between the individual documents, the provisions of the Agreement shall take precedence in the following order:
 - a) Order,
 - b) if applicable, Annex 2 to the GTCP and the legal declaration made by the contracting partner in accordance with Section Hiba! A hivatkozási forrás nem található.,
 - c) Tender,
 - d) Call for Tenders,
 - e) GTCP and Annex 1 thereto.

5. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE CONTRACTING PARTNER

- 5.1. The Contracting Partner shall provide the Service to the Purchaser in accordance with the specifications set out in the Agreement, in First-class quality. The obligations of the Contracting Partner during the performance of the Agreement include compliance with the relevant legislation and the standards specified in the Agreement, the professional, qualitative and quantitative adequacy of the Service provided, and the performance within the agreed deadline.

- 5.2. The Contracting Partner shall immediately notify the Purchaser of any circumstances that may jeopardize or prevent the performance of the Agreement, the quality of the Service, or its timely completion. The Contracting Partner is liable for any damages resulting from the failure to provide such notification.
- 5.3. The Contracting Partner declares that there are no reasons relating to its personality that would prevent it from performing its tasks. The Contracting Partner undertakes that, in fulfilling its obligations under the Agreement, it will not involve the Purchaser's employees or any of its relatives as defined in Section 8:1(1) point 2 of the Civil Code, nor any business entity in which such a person has an ownership interest, neither in an employment relationship nor in any other legal relationship aimed at performing work. This obligation also applies to the Subcontractors of the Contracting Partner named in the Agreement.
- 5.4. The Contracting Partner declares to possess all skills and qualifications, the necessary expertise, personal qualities and extensive experience that are essential for the performance of its obligations under the Agreement. With the above expertise and knowledge, the Contracting Partner shall act with the care expected of a service provider specializing in this type of activity.
- 5.5. Unless otherwise provided in the Agreement by the Parties, the Contracting Partner is not entitled under the Agreement to (i) take any decisions on behalf of the Purchaser, or (ii) act on behalf of the Purchaser or make any legal statements in its name.
- 5.6. During the performance of the Agreement, the Contracting Partner shall treat the information received from the Purchaser and the documentation prepared during the performance of the Agreement in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 16.
- 5.7. The Contracting Partner confirms that it has concluded the Agreement on the basis of a thorough review of the data and information provided by the Purchaser. The Contracting Partner acknowledges that any failure to familiarize itself with the data and information or any misinterpretation thereof shall not release it from its obligation to correctly assess the conditions and costs of the performance of the Agreement.
- 5.8. The Contracting Partner shall perform its activities in such a way as to enable the Purchaser to take a well-informed decision, by providing the Purchaser with sufficient information and time to do so. In cases requiring decisions by the Purchaser, the Contracting Partner shall provide written preparatory material describing the circumstances relevant to the decision, and, where applicable, the various alternative decisions, their advantages, disadvantages, and possible effects.

5.9. Liability of the Contracting Partner

- 5.9.1. The Contracting Partner shall exempt the Purchaser from any liability arising from the Contracting Partner's unlawful conduct or breach of contract, and any other conduct in connection with the performance of the Agreement (including, where applicable, claims by third parties against the Purchaser), and shall indemnify the Purchaser in full for any claims for damages arising in connection therewith.
 - 5.9.2. In the case of Services aiming the purchase of goods, if the Contracting Partner is also considered a manufacturer under the relevant legislation, the liability of manufacturers under such legislation shall also apply to the Contracting Partner.
 - 5.9.3. The Purchaser reserves the right to claim damages in all cases.
- 5.10. The Contracting Partner shall keep the whole documentation (in particular financial and technical) arising in connection with the performance of the Agreement and retain in its entirety for as long as a related claim can be pursued. The records shall be retained by the Contracting Partner for the period specified by the relevant legislation, and up to a maximum of eight (8) years for financial documentation. The scope of financial documentation shall include, in particular, invoices, accounting documents, contracts, documents related to the tendering of subcontractors and other documents relating to costs incurred in connection with the performance of the Agreement at the Contracting Partner, which enable the determination of the cost structure of the Fee and a market-based comparison of the costs incurred in connection with the performance of the Agreement. The Contracting Partner undertakes to cooperate with the Purchaser in the event of any inspection and to remedy any deficiencies identified in connection with the performance within the time limit specified by the Parties. The audits carried out by the Purchaser do not, in any way or to any extent exempt the Contracting Partner from its legal, financial and other obligations or responsibilities under the Agreement or under the relevant legislation.

- 5.11. The Contracting Partner shall perform the tasks specified in the Agreement, taking into account the business and other legitimate interests of the Purchaser, in such a way that they can be fulfilled to the fullest extent possible.

6. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PURCHASER

- 6.1. The Purchaser shall provide the Contracting Partner with available data, information and documents necessary for the performance of the Agreement by the Contracting Partner, in accordance with the Contracting Partner's request indicated through the System, in a timely and appropriate manner.
- 6.2. The Purchaser shall fulfil its payment obligation after the performance of the task (Service) specified in the Agreement and the submission of the invoice with the performance certificate attached thereto and signed by the authorized representative of the Purchaser.

7. METHOD AND TERMS OF PERFORMANCE

- 7.1. Unless otherwise specified in the Agreement, the place of performance shall be the registered office of the Purchaser. The Purchaser is entitled to refuse acceptance of any performance delivered to an address other than that specified in the Agreement.
- 7.2. The deadline of performance is the performance deadline specified in the Order.
- 7.3. Use of Contributors
 - 7.3.1. The Contracting Partner shall primarily perform its services in person; the use of a Contributor (Subcontractor) during performance may only take place with the prior written approval of the Purchaser, the costs of which shall be borne by the Contracting Partner. The Contracting Partner shall indicate to the Purchaser its intention to use a Subcontractor already at the time of submitting the Tender.
 - 7.3.2. The Contracting Partner is liable for the conduct of the Contributors as if it had acted itself, and in the event of the unauthorized use of Contributors, the Contracting Partner shall be liable for any damages that would not have occurred without the use of the Contributor.
 - 7.3.3. The Purchaser is entitled to withdraw its consent to the participation of a Contributor in particularly justified cases. In such cases, the Contracting Partner shall ensure that the Contributor concerned withdraws from the work immediately after the withdrawal of consent, but no later than within 8 (eight) calendar days, and shall immediately ensure that the Contributor approved in advance in writing by the Purchaser continues the work. The replacement of a Contributor shall not affect the performance deadlines and fees specified in the Agreement.

- 7.3.4. The Contracting Partner undertakes to enforce the provisions relating to the Purchaser's right to approve the Contributors and to inspect the contracts concluded with them, in the contracts to be concluded with the Contributors on the basis of the Agreement. The Contracting Partner shall stipulate in the contracts to be concluded with the Contributors, that the Purchaser's right of approval of the involvement of the Contributors applies not only to undertakings which qualify as Contributors under the Agreement between the Contracting Partner and the Purchaser, but also to undertakings and agents engaged by the Contributor („further subcontractor”).
- 7.4. If the Contracting Partner is unable to provide the Service within the performance deadline specified in the Agreement, it shall inform the Purchaser immediately after becoming aware of this, but no later than within 72 (seventy-two) hours. If the Contracting Partner fails to fulfil its obligation to provide information or fails to do so in a timely manner, it is obliged to reimburse the Purchaser for any damages incurred in connection with the failure to fulfil or delay in fulfilling such obligation to provide information.
- 7.5. If, before expiry of the performance deadline, it becomes apparent that the Contracting Partner will not be able to fulfil its obligations under the Agreement by the due date, and performance is therefore no longer in the interest of the Purchaser, the Purchaser is entitled to withdraw from or terminate the Agreement or exercise its other rights provided for in the GTCP (e.g. enforcement of contractual penalty claims).
- 7.6. The Contracting Partner shall notify the Purchaser in writing of the partial or complete performance of the Agreement.
- 7.7. The Purchaser may not unjustifiably refuse to accept the Contracting Partner's performance if it is in accordance with the Agreement. If the Purchaser finds that the performance is not in accordance with the Agreement, it notifies the Contracting Partner in writing, listing the deficiencies and errors that prevent the acceptance of the performance. Based on the notification, the Contracting Partner shall take measures to contractually perform (correct the errors or remedy the deficiencies). If the Purchaser has also set a deadline for performance in the notification, the Contracting Partner shall fulfil its obligation within this deadline. After remedying the deficiencies or correcting the errors, or after the conditions preventing the acceptability of the Service have ceased to exist, the Contracting Partner again notifies the Purchaser of the performance.
- 7.8. The Purchaser reserves the right to reject any Service that does not fully comply with the Order, the Tender, the Call for Tenders or with the GTCP.
- 7.9. The Service is deemed accepted by the Purchaser when the Purchaser has inspected the Service and the Purchaser's authorized representative has issued a performance certificate of the acceptance of the contractual performance. The performance certificate includes the fact of contractual performance, the time of performance and the consideration. The date of performance by the Contracting Partner is the date of the acceptance statement issued by the Purchaser as described above.
- 7.10. The issuance of the performance certificate does not preclude the Purchaser's right to subsequently assert any claims against the Contracting Partner arising from the Contracting Partner's defective or otherwise non-contractual performance.
- 7.11. The rights related to the Service (e.g. ownership) and all risks and obligations thereto are transferred to the Purchaser without any further conditions at the moment when the Service is performed contractually, at the place designated as the place of performance and has been accepted in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.9 above. If the Contracting Partner is entitled to partial performance under the Agreement, the risk of damage shall only pass to the Purchaser with respect to partial performance approved by the performance certificate when the item subject to partial performance is transferred to the possession of the Purchaser.

8. FEES, TERMS OF PAYMENT

- 8.1. The Fee is specified by the Parties in the Agreement (in the Order, or in the Tender) and may only be modified by changing the scope of the Services, by submitting a new Tender via the System and by placing a new Order based on that new Tender. The Contracting Partner is not entitled to unilaterally modify the Fee, including, in the case of long-term relationships, its automatic annual indexation.
- 8.2. The Fee is determined in such a way that, in accordance with Section 4.2.2 a), it includes all costs and expenses incurred by the Contracting Partner in connection with its tasks specified in the Agreement (including the cost of materials and equipment necessary for the provision of the Services, any taxes, customs duties, fees etc.). Accordingly, the Contracting Partner is not entitled to claim any additional reimbursement of costs or other financial claims from the Purchaser in excess of the Fee.
- 8.3. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, the Purchaser is not obliged to pay any advance payment to the Contracting Partner.
- 8.4. The Contracting Partner, upon receipt of the performance certificate issued by the Purchaser, is entitled and obliged to issue the relevant invoice in accordance with the accounting and tax regulations in force at the time, and to send it to the Purchaser. The Contracting Partner acknowledges that in the absence of a regularly issued invoice, the Purchaser is not obliged to make payment.
 - 8.4.1. Invoices sent by post shall be sent to the Purchaser's postal address, accompanied by a performance certificate signed by the Purchaser's representatives. The date of receipt of the invoice is the date on which the Purchaser registers its reception.
 - 8.4.2. The Contracting Partner may also submit its invoice and the signed performance confirmation as an attachment by email to the email address specified by the Purchaser in the Order. In this case, the date of receipt is the date on which the electronically sent invoice is downloaded by the Purchaser.
- 8.5. The invoice shall be settled by bank transfer to the bank account specified on the invoice issued by the Contracting Partner within 60 (sixty) calendar days of the date of receipt of the invoice by the Purchaser.
- 8.6. The Parties consider the date of payment of the Fee to be the date on which the financial institution managing the bank account debits the Purchaser's bank account with the amount payable. If the payment deadline falls on a day-off, a public holiday, a bank holiday or a non-working day, the payment deadline is extended to the next working day in accordance with Section 8:3(3) of the Civil Code.

9. CONTRACTUAL PENALTY

- 9.1. Pursuant to Section 6:186(1) of the Civil Code, the Contracting Partner is obliged to pay a contractual penalty in the event of non-performance, delayed performance or defective performance if it breaches the Agreement for reasons for which it is liable. The amount of the penalty specified in the Call for Tenders may differ from the amount specified in this chapter. If the service is related to the provision of an ICT service – product – or process (hereinafter referred to as ICT), in the event of a breach of the solution target time (TRT) assigned to the service levels related to the service packages defined in the Cyber Security and Privacy Requirements document attached to the contract concluded for the performance of this activity, the amounts of the penalties assigned to the TRTs shall apply.

- 9.2. If the Contracting Partner fails to fulfil its obligations under the Agreement within the deadline for reasons for which it is liable, the Purchaser is entitled to a penalty for delay.  - 8.2.2 shall be required to verify that the Other Data Processor implements appropriate Technical and Organisational Measures to ensure the protection of the rights of Data Subjects;
 - 8.2.3 is obliged to conclude the written contract set out in the Applicable Data Protection Law, which also provides guarantees relating to Data Processing set out in these Data Processing Terms.
- 8.3 At least thirty (30) days prior to engaging an Other Data Processor, the Data Processor shall inform the Data Controller of the identity of the Other Data Processor and of the subject matter of the Data Processing to be performed by that Other Data Processor. The Data Processor shall in this regard be bound to provide the Data Controller with all relevant facts, circumstances, information and documents. The Data Processor shall not engage an Other Data Processor whose engagement was not permitted by the Data Controller at least ten (10) business days prior to the Data Processor's planned engagement, or the Data Controller has otherwise declared to refuse giving its consent to that engagement. The absence of the objection of or the silence of the Data Controller shall not be interpreted as an authorisation to engage an Other Data Processor. The reason of refusal by the Data Controller of an authorisation could be a conflict of interest, professional incompetence, or a potential risk of breaching the Applicable Data Protection Law.
- 8.4 Should the Data Processor wish to engage another Other Data Processor instead of the one engaged beforehand, it has to inform the Data Controller thereof in writing, thirty (30) days before the change and ensure that the Data Controller exercises its right under Section 8.3 in relation to the Other Data Processor to be engaged.
- 8.5 In the event the Data Controller has authorised the use of Other Data Processor(s), including changes in the identity of the Other Data Processor(s), the Parties agree that the unilateral legal declaration referred to in Section 15.3 of the GTCP may be amended by the Contracting Partner as Data Processor.
- 8.6 The Data Processor shall be liable for the Other Data Processor as if it were performing the Data Processing Activity itself. The Data Processor shall be liable to the Data Controller for any damage, breach of law, breach of contract or any omission caused by the Other Data Processor. In this context, the Data Processor shall regularly verify that the Other Data Processor complies with the obligations under this Data Processing Agreement.
- 8.7 Should the Data Controller not provide or refuse the authorisation to engage the Other Data Processor, it shall justify its decision. In the event the Data Controller objects to the engagement of the Other Data Processor, the Data Controller and the Data Processor shall endeavour to find a mutually acceptable solution for engaging an Other Data Processor.

- 8.8 In this context, the Data Processor shall take commercially reasonable efforts to make the services available to the Data Controller or to modify them in such a way as to prevent the processing by another Data Processor of Personal Data processed on behalf of the Data Controller.
- 8.9 If the Parties fail to reach mutual agreement prior to the date of engagement of the Other Data Processor, the Data Controller shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement and the Order on which it is based in accordance with Chapter 14 of the GTCP.
- 8.10 If the Other Data Processor acts contrary to the provisions of these Data Processing Terms, the Data Processor shall transfer to the Data Controller its rights of action under the contract between the Data Processor and the Other Data Processor. The Data Processor may take measures deemed necessary to protect and preserve the Personal Data.

9. International Data Transfers

- 9.1 The Data Processor shall only be entitled to transfer Personal Data to countries outside the European Economic Area if the Data Controller has given its prior consent to such transfer, including transfers by Other Data Processors.
- 9.2 If the Data Processor intends to carry out a Data Transfer, it shall notify the Data Controller of the intended Data Transfer thirty (30) days prior to the planned Data Transfer. In this regard, the Data Processor shall be bound to provide the Data Controller with all relevant facts, circumstances, information and documents relating to the planned Data Transfer, including the data transfer mechanism it intends to apply or the Other Data Processor intends to apply in accordance with Chapter V of the GDPR or with other Applicable Data Protection Legislation.
- 9.3 If the country to which the Data Processor intends to transfer the Personal Data does not provide adequate protection and guarantees for the Personal Data, the Data Processor shall conduct a data transfer impact assessment to justify:
- 9.3.1 the specific circumstances of the transfer, including the length of the data processing chain, the number of actors involved and the transfer channels used; any further transfers planned; the type of recipient; the purpose of the data processing; the categories and format of the personal data transferred; the economic sector in which the transfer takes place; the location where the transferred data is stored;
 - 9.3.2 the laws and practices of the third country of destination which are relevant to the specific circumstances of the transfer, including laws and practices regarding the disclosure of data to authorities or the authorization of access by such authorities, as well as the applicable limitations and safeguards;
 - 9.3.3 contractual, technical, or organizational safeguards, including measures applied during the transfer and processing of Personal Data in the destination country.
- 9.4 In accordance with Section 9.2, no later than thirty (30) days prior to the planned Data Transfer, the Data Processor shall provide the Data Controller with the relevant information and documentation relating to the planned Data Transfer specified in Section 9.2. This obligation shall also apply if an authorized Other Data Processor wishes to carry out a Data Transfer.
- 9.5 The Data Processor shall not execute the Data Transfer if the Data Controller does not authorize it or objects to it at least three (3) working days before the planned Data Transfer. The absence of an objection or the silence on the part of the Data Controller shall not be interpreted as authorization to carry out the Data Transfer.
- 9.6 Should the Data Transfer be carried out by an Other Data Processor, the Data Processor shall ensure that the Data Controller effectively exercises its right to authorize any Data Transfer that may be carried out by the Other Data Processor. To this end, the Data Processor shall enter into an (additional) data processing agreement with the Other Data Processor that enables the Data Controller to effectively exercise its authorization rights and that requires the Other Data Processor to apply the same or similar obligations when it further outsources Data Processing in the data processing chain.

9.7 If the Data Controller objects or otherwise does not authorize the Data Transfer, it shall provide the reasons for its decision. In this case, the Data Controller and the Data Processor shall endeavour to find a mutually acceptable solution.

9.8 To this end, the Data Processor shall take reasonable efforts to make the services available to the Data Controller or to modify them in such a way as to prevent unauthorized data transfer.

10. Facilitating the exercise of Data Subject rights

This obligation may also be fulfilled by forwarding the Request of the Data Subject to the Data Controller.

10.3 The Data Controller is entitled to give specific instructions to the Data Processor regarding the fulfilment of the Request of the Data Subject.

10.4 The Data Processor shall take appropriate Technical and Organisational Measures to ensure that:

10.4.1 it is able to make available to the Data Controller, in an appropriate and timely manner, the Personal Data and copies thereof relating to the exercise of the right of access by the Data Subject;

10.4.3 the restriction of the processing of Personal Data shall occur in an appropriate and timely manner, preferably by using technical means.

11. Liability

11.1 The Data Controller and the Data Processor shall be liable in accordance with Article 82 of the GDPR for damages caused to the Data Subject. The Data Controller and Data Processor shall cooperate in fulfilling their liability for damages.

11.2 The Data Processor shall exempt the Data Controller from any liability for damages arising from the Data Processor's failure to comply with its obligations relating to Data Processing, with the provisions of these Data Processing Terms, or with any instructions given by the Data Controller.

12. Obligations of Data Processor after termination of the service under the Order

12.1 Upon completion of the services provided under the Order, or upon termination of the contractual relationship pursuant to Chapter 14 of the GTCP, the Data Processor shall immediately or by the date specified in the instruction of the Data Controller, in the manner and on a data carrier specified by the Data Controller transfer to the Data Controller the Personal Data processed, and at the same time delete all Personal Data processed by it, and in the case of physical data carriers owned by the Data Controller return the physical data carriers to the Data Controller and delete any copies in its possession. If the Data Processor is unable to contact the Data Controller after the termination of the contract, or if the Data Controller does not provide the opportunity for transferring the data, the Data Processor shall delete the data no later than thirty (30) days after the termination of the contract.

12.2 In order to prove the fulfilment of its obligations under Section 12.1, the Data Processor shall issue and provide the Data Controller with a unilateral written statement containing:

12.2.1 the designation and identification data of the data carrier on which the Personal Data is transferred,

12.2.2 the designation and identification information of the data carriers on which the Personal Data was otherwise processed and from where the Personal Data must be deleted, as well as the time of deletion,

12.2.3 in the case of physical data carriers owned by the Data Controller, the designation and identification information of the physical data carriers, and the date of transfer.

12.3 The Data Processor's obligation to delete data does not apply to data whose storage is required by Hungarian or European Union law, nor to data that the Data Processor processes in its capacity as data controller.

12.4 Until the Personal Data is made available or deleted, the Data Processor shall continue to ensure compliance with these Data Processing Terms.

12.5 The Data Controller shall be entitled to verify that the Data Processor has fulfilled its obligations set out in Sections 12.1-12.4 in an appropriate manner. The Data Controller shall be entitled to engage an external expert during the verification. During the verification, the Data Controller shall not engage external experts whose involvement would harm the business interests of the Data Processor. The Data Processor shall immediately, but within fifteen (15) business days of becoming aware the latest, notify the Data Controller if the involvement of the engaged expert would harm its business interests.
